Unfortunately, some problematic situations remain unresolved in this decision. For example, there are no clear instructions on how to write the letters E(y+e), Yo(y+o), Yu(y+u), Ya(y+a) in the Cyrillic alphabet in the Latin alphabet. To be more precise, in the Latin alphabet, in which words are these letters as two letters (y+e), y+o, y+u, y+a), in which words as one letter (e, o, u, a) There is no clear instruction on writing.
